Contest Information Registration forms are due by March 10, 2020.

- Bottle entries: All bottles for the competition must be dropped off at Wages Brewing Company in West Plains (located at 1382 Bill Virdon Blvd) during their normal business hours by no later than March 13, 2020. If you are participating from out of town and need to mail your bottles for judging, please contact Amy Fisher (417-204-2878) for mailing instructions.
- Keg entries: If you will be providing a keg, you do not need to provide bottles; simply bring it to the Civic Center prior to the competition.
- Each bottle must be clearly labeled with brewer's name, beer type, and category for easy identification. No other information should be included on the bottles.
- Judging will occur at the West Plains Civic Center and begins promptly at 1:00 p.m. on March 14, participants must arrive by noon.
- Entrants may enter as many BJCP categories as desired (one per beer).
- Winners will be announced at the close of competition and throughout the evening during BrewFest
- What to bring:
 - Registration fee of $25 – includes two (2) tickets to BrewFest
 - Entrants must bring a minimum of 3 bottles of each style to participate in judging.
 - Entrants are encouraged to participate in tasting during BrewFest by providing free samples to attendees. To do so, entrants must bring a minimum of 5 gallons or one keg of at least one style. If entrants provide enough beer to participate in tasting, two (2) additional free tickets to BrewFest will be provided.
 - Entrants that participate in tasting must bring means of dispensing beer (keg, CO₂, taps, etc).
 - If desired, ice will be provided by the organizers.
- Prizes: 1st, 2nd, 3rd winners will be chosen by BJCP Judges. In addition to prizes, each participant will receive a detailed scoresheet for each entry.
- Best of Show will be the Peoples Choice winner. Donations will be counted as votes for the most popular beer. Donations will be given to West Plains Council on the Arts at the end of the evening.
- Please return this form to Amy Fisher via email Aym@wagesbrewco.com or drop off in person at Wages.
